

Stoke Gabriel Art Group was founded in 1960. Hugh Goodson of Waddeton Court, who at the time was President of Devon Art Society, along with his wife and other enthusiastic artists from the village including Nancy Sargent-Thomas (headmistress of the local Primary School), Cooney O'Callaghan, Keith Peterson, Mrs Gillmore and Ron Dugmore came together to promote the 'joys of art'.

Stoke Gabriel Art Group – an active and sociable group with regular workshops and events throughout the year including an exhibition in the Village Hall every year. Open to all.

We are currently looking for new members to join us and everyone is welcome to come along and see what our art group is all about. The weekly Thursday morning sessions are so popular we are thinking that we might need a loft extension in the village hall!

So what do we do on these mornings, well we talk about painting, do a lot of painting, learn some great tips about different mediums. And if we get stuck, there's always someone who knows how to sort things out. (Tea is on hand!) Critique sessions (always positive), still life sessions, e.t.c.

And not only that, we have our monthly Tuesday night demonstration evenings, which are again, hugely popular. The demos are usually by Devon-based artists who regularly demonstrate in their own medium such as oils, acrylics, watercolours.

But ... we have a wonderful evening on Tuesday 4th June, where some of our own SGAG members will be demonstrating their skills. It's going to be a very special evening for SGAG and we would love you to come along, bring a friend, have a chat and see for yourselves what a great art group we have on our own doorstep. Admission is free. There will be refreshments, and some artwork will be available to purchase on the night.

Information can always be found on the notice board in the Church House Inn car park. Information includes dates of our exhibition and all other events.

Contact Membership Secretary Jackie Tucker 07564 227250 or email tucksatarvu@yahoo.co.uk for further details about joining the art group.

Website currently having a facelift, but information is available.
